IN A GLANCE

CONSOLVING Srl Società tra Professionisti is an Italian management consulting firm set up on 15 October 2008 by senior partners with a high level of skills and experience.

Consolving is a Triple A — Company as it offers three main services: Advisory, Audit, Attestation.

The privileged market where Consolving operates is that of Corporate & Structured Finance. Most of the jobs performed from the incorporation are recurrent with an annual frequency, this feature is very peculiar for a consulting firm.

VALUES

The Consolving business model is based on three essential values really appreciated by the clients

Independence

Independence is characterised by integrity.
It requires Consolving to be never in conflict of interests with the client.

Execution

Consolving is well known in the market for the speed in starting every new job and the compliance with the deadlines shared with the client.

Performance

Consolving performance refers to the satisfaction of the client, served every year with the same accuracy spent in the first job.
